#1

JIMMY

SULLIVAN

The Iowa commit is an easy choice for the Swami's top spot. Through three games (really, two games because of one weather cancellation and one blowout), "Bubba" has thrown for 392 yards and six TDs on 29-of-40 passing. He leads the Chargers in rushing, too, with 209 yards on 34 official carries (6.1 ypc).

MICHAEL

WHITE

White is a 6-foot-3 lefty with loads of upside. Like Sullivan, he leads his team in rushing (125 yards on 32 attempts) while completing 59-percent of his passes (36 of 61) for 488 yards and four scores. When he cuts down on the INTs (he's got four through three weeks of action), his recruiting stock will skyrocket.

BRAYDEN

HOLBROOK

Holbrook is receiving MAC interest for his feathery release and poise in the pocket. Though not the runner that Sullivan and White are, he's certainly on par with his passing prowess. With three games in the books, Holbrook has thrown for 458 yards and seven TDs on 38-of-59 passing (with two interceptions).

DAVID

DALLISON

Like White and Holbrook, Callison is a talented junior who can sling it. Before he was injured in Week 2 at Huntington North, he was lighting up area secondaries like a Christmas tree. In just 1.5 games he has thrown for 537 yards and eight TDs on 28-of-39 passing. He's hoping to return to action this week.

ELI

TIGULIS

This senior was an all-ACAC performer last year as a wide receiver while then-senior QB Kobe Meyer was a finalist for GameNight's Player of the Year award. The transition-under center has been seamless. Through three games Tigulis has thrown for 676 yards and seven touchdowns on 41-of-55 passing (75-percent) and no picks.

AARON

VANCE

Vance was named OPS Football's Player of the Week in GameNight for his Week 2 performance vs. East Noble (216 combined rushing/passing yards, four total TDs). Though the Panthers are traditionally a run-first team, the senior signal-caller has nonetheless thrown for 293 yards and three touchdowns through three games.

GRAYSON

BRADBERRY

Known more for his prowess as a pitcher on the Eagles' baseball diamond, Bradberry can toss it around pretty good on the gridiron, too. In three lopsided wins the athletic QB has thrown for 391 yards and seven touchdowns on 22-of-29 passing (76-percent). Even more impressive, he's yet to throw a pick this year.
