

OUR MISSION

The mission of Our Lady School (OLS) is to participate in the formation of true disciples of Jesus Christ through an interdisciplinary, integrated, Catholic Classical Liberal Arts curriculum centered on Christ and His Church.

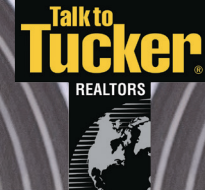

CLASSICAL LIBERAL ARTS

We are striving to give our children the tools to help them thrive in the Christian life. Our students participate in Holy Mass four days each week.

LAST WEEK: The Bishop Dwenger Saints – beat up and besieged by injuries – went to Chambers Field last Friday night to face the talented North Side Legends. After a short touchdown run by junior RB Kayden Bush gave the Saints a 7-0 first-quarter lead, another North Side mishap on its punt team resulted in a BD block and a first-and-goal situation at the Legends' 4-yard line. One play later senior RB Nick Pelkington ran virtually untouched for a 14-0 Saints edge. That's all that Dwenger would need in a 14-6 victory over the Legends. "Defense and special teams played very well for us tonight," coach Jason Garrett said shortly after the game. "Defensive effort and generating turnovers (were the keys to our success)." Senior secondary mates Brady O'Keefe and Paul Baumgartner came up with game-sealing interceptions in the second half to turn away North Side scoring opportunities. The BD "D" stymied area-rushing leader Caleb Kiengele; the sophomore dynamo was completely shut down in the game's opening 24 minutes. "Our defensive line won the line of scrimmage," BD DC Dan Knepper told GameNight. "Overall, we were very proud of the effort and discipline exhibited (last week). That's a very good North Side team who plays with pride and passion." Junior Doug Henry (pictured) contributed on both sides of the ball: one carry for 9 yards; six tackles and one tackle for loss on defense. Senior D-end Tommy Poiry had seven QB hurries, 2.5 TFLs and a fumble recovery. Pelkington had 3.5 TFLs and 15 total takedowns. Junior OLB Dylan Tippmann registered 14 tackles and three pass breakups.

TONIGHT: Dwenger (1-2) returns back to the friendly confines of Shields Field in this one as the 1-2 Carroll Chargers come calling. "All three facets are strong and well coached," Garrett said of the Chargers. "We need to continue to play well on defense, mixing looks and getting pressure on the quarterback." The quarterback is senior Jimmy Sullivan, who is headed to play for Iowa next year. "Another week where we have to account for the QB in the run game," Knepper said. "Much like North Side, Carroll has been relying on the quarterback's legs as a big part of the offense. Another great challenge we embrace." The Saints' defense will look to the Pelk/Poiry pairing to keep Sullivan from running wild. Senior Pete Thiel will also play a big role in that pursuit. Knepper was slated to be the Coach in the Cave guest on Thursday night's episode of Around the Fort (search on YouTube or stream live at SummitCitySports.com).
